September 2010

September 8, - The New Moon - 15 Degrees Virgo at 3:30 am PDT - This is considered the second of the three super new moons we are going to have this year. It has a greater effect on what you do and say on this day and the next several days. New moons allow you to reset your intent for who you are, not who you think you are. Transformation is the essence of each moment and today is a powerful time to re-connect with your source. If you didn't know who you were, who would you be? Jupiter retrogrades back into Pisces, known for its deep mystical side of life. Unconditional love is the reminder of eternity. It appears that without unconditional love, creation would not exist. Jupiter is going to be in Pisces until January 22, 2011. During this period, all of us are going to find the path that is within us and before us. If you have lost your way than the way is found right where you are! On September 12, Mercury goes forward after its second retro period this year. The next day, on the 13th, Pluto goes direct, and you can truly feel a real sense of forward motion as life becomes you. September 14, Mars enters Scorpio until Oct 27, and as passion is discovered, you can channel this powerful opportunity into your Awareness!

September 22, - The Full Moon - 29 degrees in Aries at 6:27 pm PDT - Just hours before the Full Moon, the Sun enters Libra at 8:08 pm PDT (Fall Equinox). The ongoing cardinal t-square with Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Pluto is still making its self known. Dig this; there are eight oppositions and fifteen squares. Wow! This has been the Summer of Change, and it keeps on truckin'. Each day until the end of the month you are going to be presented visions, and sense of awareness, which may reveal hidden information. This is the tide of a cosmic force, which is the source of all that is bringing the planet to a new seeding for what I call the "age of light". For the next 14 years, we are going to witness major earthquakes of untold destruction, record storms, and some of the worst weather the world has seen. We are talking about Biblical forces of nature. It has already begun and all you have to do is look at your news from around the world. It is how the earth is going to start clean up the environment, by getting rid of the source of the problem. That would be "US". A time for you to change the way you live, or shall you go as all things in the universe, back to our origins, which is where we end up anyway.

The twelve signs of the Zodiac

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) You're turning a big corner from the past. Consider this month as a fresh new beginning. Saturn did its number on you in the past few years, and now it's Libra's turn. Be cautious with money and any deals that seem to be too good to be true; avoid these or it may cost you. Some of you are moving and others are going to fix up your living space. Work has to be dealt with in a realistic manner, or you find yourself in a situation that didn't need to happen. Relationships are expanding and there is always the unexpected that can be associated with nature and the mystery of life. The shift this month is to pay attention to the way you communicate with others. Some of you start a journal or listen with your heart to open the true communication that begins with yourself. When you start treating yourself with love and consideration then it is appreciated by everyone, because the way you treat others is the way you treat yourself.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23)

Keep your sense of humor intact as you are entering a new era of change and adjustment. The focus is on the relationship, an area of your life hasn't been the highlight in twenty-nine years. Work and health is also areas that are going to have a greater impact on you when it comes to daily life. You find yourself visiting someone at the hospital or you're involved with helping someone who needs your attention. Some of you are moving, if you haven't done so already, and you find opportunities are going to present themselves. New relationships are a focus and all forms of health and relationship depend on your relations with those whom you have to deal with. You learn about patience and how to let go of things and people you have no control over. If you are planning on changing your weight, it is best to change your lifestyle, because diets are short term solutions, but the way you live has everything to do with your long-term health.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21)

Any difficulty you have had in meeting or dating is over. You're moving into a new segment of life, which is shifting to expand your work interest and romance. Now is a major shift to leave your financial troubles behind you. We all learn in life, that it's not what you own that matters, but it's what you do in life and matters. Be on guard for anyone who may be working against your purpose. Don't act in a manner that can make some people work against you. Be on guard with whom you're dealing with at all times. Stay away from any intrigue you create, for it can and will work to undo what you are trying to do. There is a focus on changing the way you communicate with others. A relationship is highlighted, for this month and the next. Romance is going to bring a light to your life. If you move from where you live, you may want or even desire to move closer the ocean or a body of water.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) You're entering a period of your life when money is not going to be necessarily scarce or abundant, but you will make money. Pluto is moving in an area of your chart that may encourage you to consider re-evaluating the way you see resources. Deep feelings arise, revealing emotional insights into the way you feel about someone. Travel has been on your mind, and you are ready for the journey. However, before you commit, make sure that you have the time and money to enjoy the adventure that your own. The world is waiting for you to express yourself, and your creativity provides the impetus! This month you need to overcome frustrations and delays, but a good attitude makes all the difference in the world. A financially conservative approach this month ensures that you have funds available in the future for the transition that is waiting to surprise you. Some of you are moving this month or anticipating a move. Moving near the ocean or a large body of water is not out of the question.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Even though you want to move forward, there is something telling you to slow down, therefore, gather your energy and just enjoy the quality time that you create. If you find that romance is awaiting your decision, choose to rekindle the sparks of passion and love, and expresses yourself with words that have been silent too long. On the work front, with more time required to meet the demands of your responsibilities, stay focused on the positive, and keep any negativity out-of-mind. With Pluto in your sign, make this a time of transition, and keep in mind that it may take longer than expected to the logical unfolding of what's to come. With Jupiter in your fourth house of home, some of you are going to be moving as planned, or as a sudden necessity. Many of you are going to be promoted at work, or you may be in for a change with your place of employment. No matter what the circumstance, you are entering a positive and supportive time for your advance.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) The unexpected happens, and much to your amazement, it helps you to realize your dreams. With discipline, you can eliminate your work backlog and bring yourself current with your responsibilities. You hear from someone, whom you haven't heard from in a while, gets in touch with you. As enticing as this is, the question is whether or not you can afford the time away from your busy schedule. Love is a great teacher and healer, and it comes in many forms. Synchronicity is the reminder that love is always supporting you. There may be many people misunderstand you, that's not your problem. Just be yourself, for that's all that anyone can ask. With Jupiter going back into Pisces until January of 2011, this is going to put the focus on money, property, and resources. It's a kind of expansion with these areas. Education and travel are going to be an area for your revision. Passion can come suddenly and it is a surprise what insight life has to offer.

PISCES (Feb. 19-Mar. 20) This is an ideal month for bringing meditation into your life, and one of its beneficial effects is that it centers you. Work is demanding and you are looking forward to the challenge. You accomplish more when you don't waste time on unimportant matters. So to be successful, it is essential that you're clear as to what is important to you. This can be a fun time if you are able to keep your head out of the clouds and stay grounded. Romance is for those who are available and open, therefore, leave the door ajar. If you're already in a relationship, then what a perfect time to toss aside the restraints, and free yourself to romantically bond with the one you love. Jupiter is supporting you in your sign for the rest of the year, so pursue your loves and desires. Transformation is the key for you. Learn not to resist and flow with way life unfolds. Listen to your intuition or you may miss out on one of the wonders of being alive. Keep a healthy attitude for a happy life.

ARIES (Mar. 21-April 19) You feel that something uninviting is going to happen, and yet everything is fine. Although you can't shake the dissatisfaction and restlessness, you can accomplish anything by staying focused on your work. In addition to productivity, this has the added benefit of making you feel better. In general, you have a tendency to be on the edge, regardless of the situation. This is often a result of your judgments about what you (erroneously) perceive to be true. You need to take the time to relax and to rid yourself of negative thoughts. After all, you are what you think, and if you can't stay positive in thought, then it's better not to think at all! However, in so doing, keep a little of fun in mind, for you are invited to a gathering where someone special awaits. Laugh your blues away and you find yourself on the road to a new adventure. Uranus in Aries for the next seven years as energy abounds, and the unexpected makes your life a wonder for the mystery that it is.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) GEMINI (May 21-June 21) You're on the verge of understanding yourself from a fresh point of view, and you find this a bit unnerving. Strive to eliminate the elements of your life, which no longer serve you, and continue to expand your world by meeting new people. View your financial considerations with the sensibilities of the heartland: money is like water, and a drought is always looming. If you conserve your resources, you are happier, wealthier, and wiser. By adding love to your consciousness, you are that much closer to living the ideal! Pay attention to your health and it responds in kind. You're entering into a new phase in your life, where the transformation is the key word, but it's going to happen slowly like a garden. Be patient and let life take its course of least resistance. Unexpected friends are on the horizon, bringing about possibilities, and all you have to do is be yourself. Expect an occurrence at work that takes you into a new direction.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21) Please do yourself favor, and don't get upset with a person in authority. It doesn't matter. Just keep your thoughts to yourself when it comes to authority figures. A harmless situation can escalate and you'll wish you had kept quiet. If you can't add to the eloquence of silence then it is best to listen to the quiet and serene rhythms of Divine Perfection right inside of you. Relationships can suffer at this time and be a source of growth, but it's through the difficulties in life that we attain wisdom. Communication is always the keyword for you so continue to be open to new ideas. It's good to review your financial situation and evaluate what you want to accomplish with your future. Business and career matters are taking center stage: plan for the future. Discipline is a key to your success so implement it as soon as possible. If you can avoid quarreling with your in-laws or any family member then do so. This is the month to avoid disagreements or you could find your self in a controversy. If you can't make up your mind, then don't do it. Develop your communication skills by listening.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) Let your awareness guide you toward a new way to understanding yourself. Nurture everyone and have clarity in what you communicate to others. You feel a bit lethargic, but this too shall pass. You have come to the end of a two-and-a-half year cycle that has taught you about yourself, but it's now time to take life a step further by becoming what you have learned! Pluto in your seventh house of Partnerships is going to put this area of your life up for review. If you are unhappy in your current intimate relationship, then figure out how to extract yourself from the situation. The news is that everything, that happens to you is for your benefit. Your vocation or career is going to get a shot in the arm. A promotion is in the making, or a new position with your current employment. Some of you are moving as Saturn is entering your fourth house of home. This is a big deal because you view your home as your sacred space. When you're emotional, wait until you are centered to make any important decisions that may have long term consequences.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) You're at the beginning stages of a most welcomed adventure that can help you to understand your inner workings. You trek inward and it's this journey that continues for the next two years as Saturn prepares to show you who you are, and who you are not in relationships with others! With Saturn in Libra, you are going to explore your connection with others in a deeper and more meaningful way. However, relationships are going to come, and some are going to go. Therefore, you don't want to expect permanents for the next few years. Change is the key word and it's up to you for the direction that you choose. A major decision that you are prepared to make is supported by the force of creation, but to the degree that you have considered how it nurtures others. Relationships are the focus, hence think before you speak, and then do so only if it's from the heart. Words have substance and they guide you (and others) in the right direction. You're going to learn how to communicate in a new healthy way.
